15-18 JUNE 2023

These Regulations concern the establishment of rules for the granting of press accreditations, entitling to participate in the scope and under the rules set out below in the CSIO5* Sopot, which will take place from 15 to 18 June, 2023.

Submitting an application for accreditation is tantamount to acceptance of the rules.

1. Journalistic accreditations at CSIO Sopot 2023 are provided free of charge to professionally active representatives of international, national and local media (press, television, radio, Internet) delegated to media service CSIO Sopot 2023. In other cases, it is possible to purchase accreditation at a gross price of 1000 PLN.

2. The final decision on granting accreditation (unpaid and paid) is made by the Organizer.

1. GENERAL RULES

1. Journalists who have been granted accreditation receive a wristband entitling them to enter the showground.

2. Accredited persons are obliged to place the accreditation in a place visible to the security services.

3. Entrance to the main arena during classes takes place only with the consent of the main judge of the competition under the supervision of the coordinator. The basis for entering the arena during the competition (designated zones) and prize giving ceremony (designated zone) is the possession of a special pass, which can be obtained directly from the Press Officer - before each class. The number of passes is limited.

4. Accredited persons are asked due to the rank of the event and television broadcast for the appropriate dress - long pants / skirt, shirt, jacket. The organizer reserves the right to refuse access for a prize giving ceremony for people who do not comply with the specified "dress code".

5. Persons who have been granted accreditation agree to put their e-mail addresses in the Organizer's database, process personal data for accreditation and agree to receive newsletters (not often than 2 per week in the weeks preceding the competition, and one per day during week of competition)) from the address media@csio.sopot.pl regarding CSIO Sopot 2023.

6. Prepared by accredited journalists materials from CSIO Sopot 2023 can be used only to the extent that it does not violate the rights of other people, including the right to the image, personal rights, trademark rights.

7. Accredited journalists can not interfere with the course of the event, and make it difficult for the audience to receive the event. There is a total ban on shooting with a flash and blocking communication routes, passages, escape routes, entries and exits from the competition area.

8. The accreditation does not entitle its holders to enter the VIP tent.

9. The organizer is entitled to remove the accredited from the event and to withdraw the accreditation in the following cases:

a) the accredited does not comply with any of the rules set out in these regulations or violates the provisions of generally applicable law.

b) accredited by his behavior creates a danger for other participants or makes it difficult to conduct.

c) The accredited provided the accreditation document to a third party to enable it to enter the event or otherwise violate the rules of using the accreditation.

d) Accredited does not apply to the Organizer's instructions or persons authorized by the Organizer.

2. RULES OF AWARDING ACCREDITATION
